

EHS
Water Management Policy
Policy No	Version No.	Effective Date
COHANCE/EHS/004	00	16.02.2023

Cohance Lifesciences is committed to conserving natural resources, with particular attention in water-stressed areas by.

All employees of Cohance Lifesciences are :

1. Commits to measuring, monitoring and reporting relevant performance indicators for water shall adopt Green Technology where possible.
2. Shall protect water and natural resources.
3. Shall meet environment protection statutory requirements.
4. To control pollution, we review our all activities and make necessary changes.
5. Shall increase water conservation awareness among company and contractor employees and all stakeholders.
6. Shall develop a more strategic approach to environmental sustainability.
7. Mitigating potential impact on water quality from our own and Neighborhood industry.
8. Responsibly managing discharges into water.
9. An internal or external audit on water use, comprised of a detailed water balance and the characterization of all effluents produced by the site.
10. A responsible consumption of water, to preserve the environment and health of individuals and communities.
11. A water withdrawal and water consumption reduction plan, based on the modernization of some equipment, water treatment facilities, or on the change in operational procedures.
12. We will also engage our suppliers in efficient water usage.
13. Internal water management practices, incl. ensuring alternative water supply, water reduction, pollution reduction, raising awareness on substances of concern (such as persistent organic compounds, etc.) External water management practices, incl. stakeholder management.

Approved By

Dr. Prasada Raju

Managing Director & CEO

Date: Feb 16th, 2023

Place: Hyderabad, Telangana